The Novasutras movement serves the growing need for spiritual community as activists respond to the vast challenges of environmental disruption and social injustice that threaten global and personal well-being. Our perspective is that the deepest root cause of the climate crisis and mass extinction is the loss of reverence for the living world.

Novasutras hosts meditations on the Equinoxes, Solstices and Cross-Quarters (8 times per year). These Octal Meditations revitalize our connection with and reverence for Nature.
